

Province of the
EASTERN CAPE
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT,
ENVIRONMENTAL AFFAIRS & TOURISM

Western Cape
Government
FOR YOU

CSIR
Touching lives through innovation

forestry, fisheries
& the environment
Department:
Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

Aloe Ferox Sustainable Wild Harvesting Guidelines

Sustainable Actions for a Better Future

Why Aloe ferox Matters?

Images Captured by Ulrich Feiter

Aloe Landscape Captured by AfricanAloe

Principles & Approach

Partners: This project is being undertaken through a multi-stakeholder partnership:

- Parceval & SAPBA (Southern Africa Botanical Product Association) – Ana Sampson, Avril Harvey, Ulrich Feiter
- DEDEAT – Thabo Gwiji, Phethiso Machaea, Noluthando Bam
- DEA&DP – Vanessa Matukana
- DFFE – Thembisile Zimu, Natalie Feltman
- CSIR – Trishen Reddy, Phatheka Ndotoyi
- SANBI – Neil Crouch
- TRAFFIC – Kate Mole, David Newton

Aim of the Guideline:

- To be Widely Distributed
- Widely Beneficial
- Widely Consulted
- Wide Language Distribution

Eastern Cape

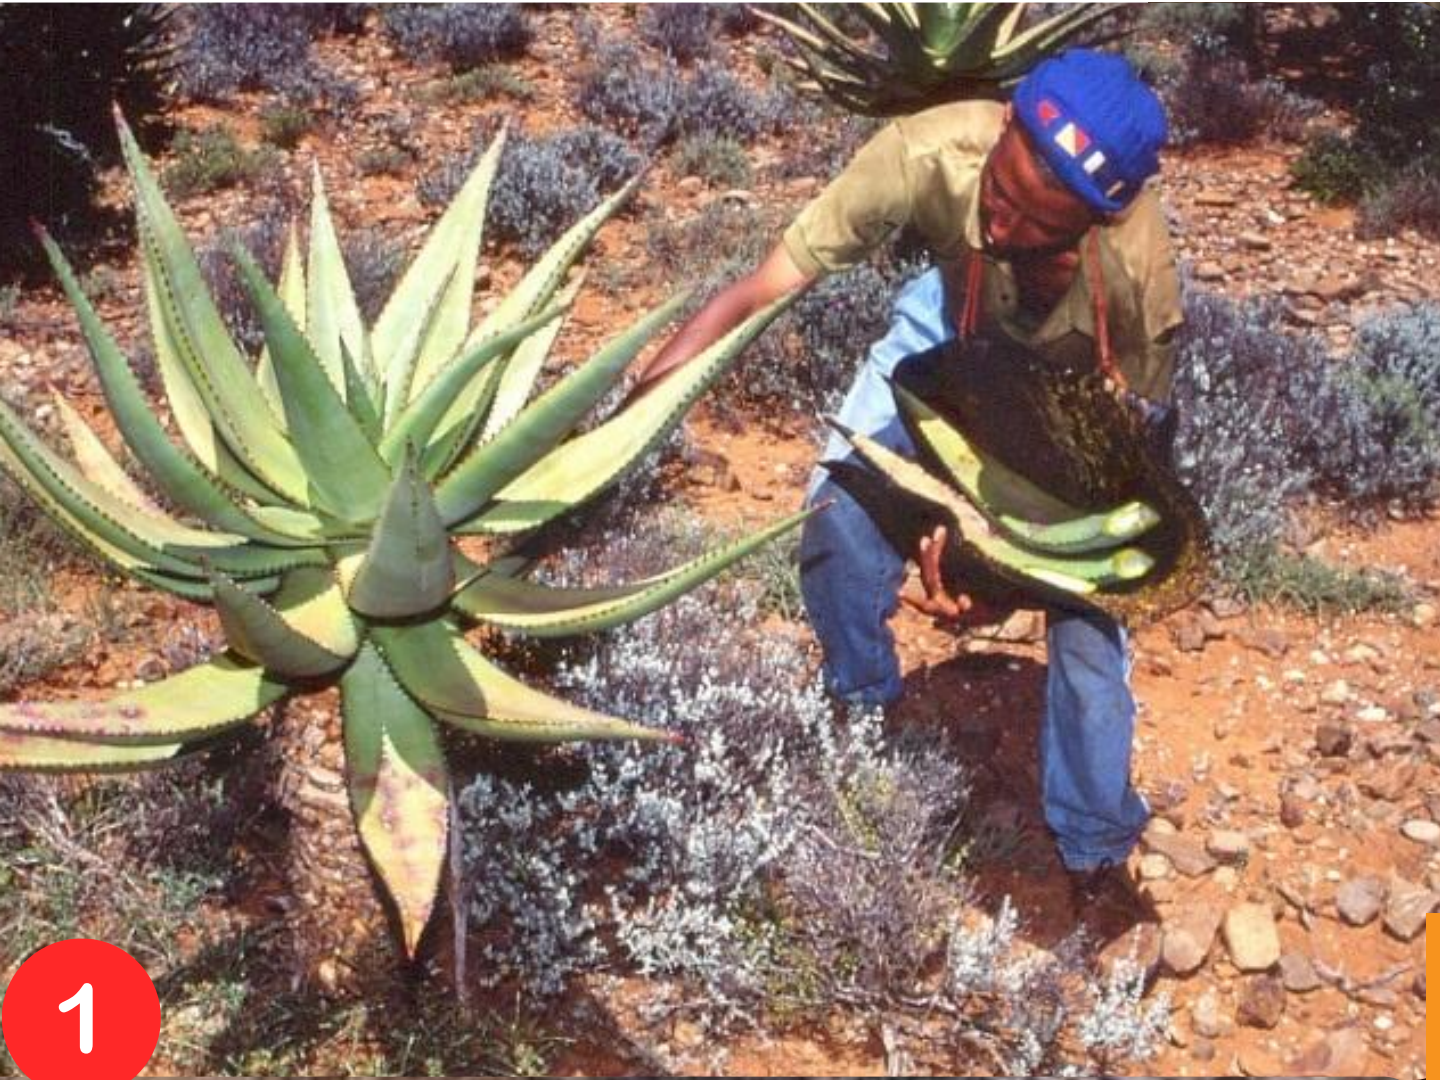

King Williams Town- 3rd June

Western Cape

Outenique Research Centre- 5th June

1

6

5

2

How To Harvest Aloe ferox

Pictures captured by Ken Dodds, Theo Otto, Ulrich Feiter

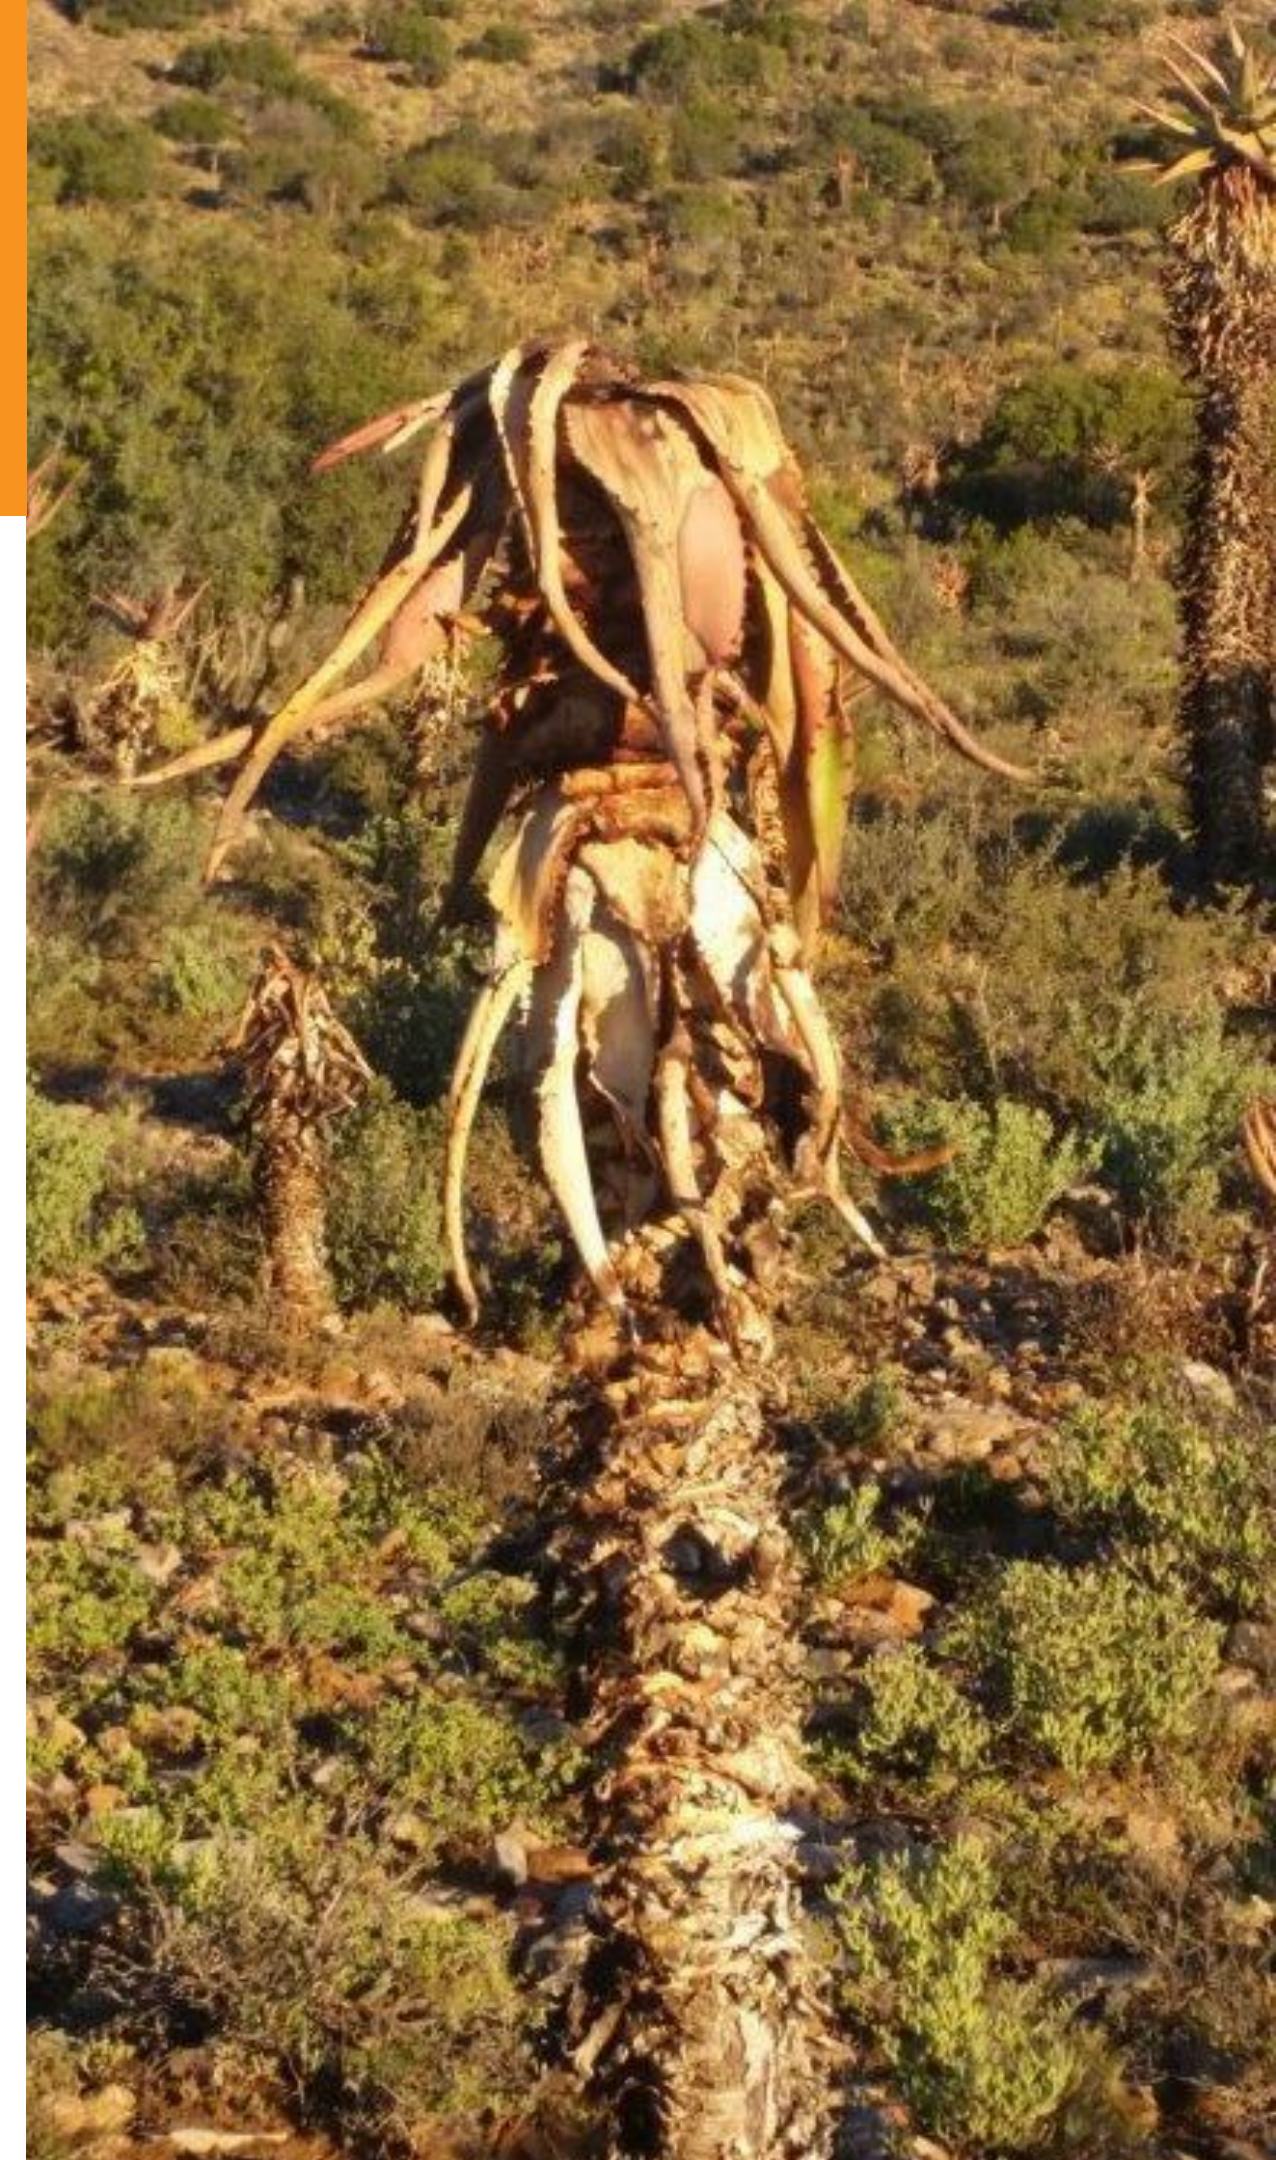

3

4

Unsustainable Harvesting

Pictures captured by Africanaloe

Sustainable Harvesting

Pictures captured by Africanaloe

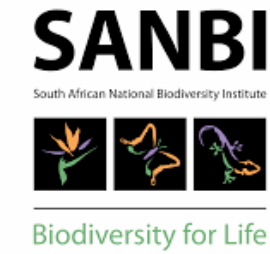

Province of the
EASTERN CAPE
ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT,
ENVIRONMENTAL AFFAIRS & TOURISM

Western Cape
Government
FOR YOU

CSIR
Touching lives through innovation

forestry, fisheries
& the environment
Department:
Forestry, Fisheries and the Environment
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

Thank you!

Sustainable Actions for a Better Future